Homes for Good will be accepting Project Based Voucher (PBV) waitlist pre-applications for three-bedroom units at Hayden Bridge Landing in Springfield, OR. The voucher subsidy is set so you will pay 30% of your adjusted monthly income for rent and utilities. After living in a Project Based Voucher subsidized unit for 12 months, you can apply to have your subsidy converted to a Section 8 voucher and move to a dwelling of your choice.

This newly built complex located at 1975 5th St. in Springfield, includes twelve residential buildings and one community building for a total of 13 buildings with both townhouse and flat style units. The residential portion of the site will total approximately 72,000 square feet, with an approximate additional 8,000 square feet for bike storage, trash enclosures, patios, and second floor decks. The community room creates a gathering space for residents and include ample space for on-site resident services such as employment counseling, financial literacy classes and reading and after school classes for children. Moreover, the layout proposes 105 parking spaces, a play area, and laundry facilities to support the overall nineteen 2-bedroom units, thirty-four 3-bedroom and seventeen 1-bedroom units.

Managed through Quantum Residential Inc, onsite services include: on-site management, 24-hour emergency maintenance, planned social events, on-site leasing office, online payment options, and online maintenance requests. Quantum Residential has a no pet policy, emotional support animals and service animals can be allowed through a reasonable accommodation (RA).

Residents pay only for electric. Water, sewer, and garbage are included with the rent. Move-in costs include an application fee for each adult and a prorated first-months' rent along with a deposit. Applicants must meet very-low income guidelines (50% area median income) to qualify. Income will be assessed at pre-application. Residents must meet occupancy requirements for the unit size they are applying to. Homes for Good can assist applicants in obtaining a guaranteed loan for the deposit, repayable over six months at a reasonable interest rate. For applications while the waitlist is open, go to: www.homesforgood.org/find-a-home/housing-details/wait-list. Applications are online only, and will be done through a random selection process. People who lack internet access may request assistance in completing the pre-application over the phone by calling 541-682-2550 when the wait list is open. Those with lower numbers will be served second in numerical order. Referrals from local preference partners will be served first.
