- Nedco 2019 schedule
- Winter Tips
- And MORE!

Winter is upon us! This means many things to different people. Winter is a time to bundle up, to be extra careful on the road and in the elements, to think of the new year ahead and what you want to accomplish. It also means higher electric bills, darker days, and even seasonal depression. Take a peek inside where we have tips and tricks for you to get through the Winter Season safely and with ease.

Slowing Down and Reflection is a Natural Part of Winter.

Guess What?! Starting in January, Resident Services will have 2 Specialists! That's right!! Katie will be our 2nd Resident Services Specialist so we can expand our services! What is Resident Services you ask? Well, it is a department here at Homes for Good dedicated to folks living in our Public Housing. We provide advocacy, make stuff like this newsletter, assist with Resident Meetings, referrals, plan events for you and much much more! Give us a call! 541-682-2538 and Happy New Year!

Winter Survival Tips 101

Seasonal Depression?

The shorter days, darker days, did I mention shorter days? This can get us extra down and gloomy. Below are a few tips to help you pull through the winter gloom and doom! But remember, the shortest day has already happened, so it is all up hill from here!

Are you taking Vitamin D? If you live in Oregon, you are more than likely Vitamin D deficient. SAD (Seasonal Affective Disorder) is a real thing. Vitamin D could help. Typical recommendations are 2,000 IU per day or higher. Talk to your Dr. for more information.

Light Therapy— there are lights you can purchase that offer a bright full spectrum light that you can sit in front of for a half hour a day or more. Again, talk to your Dr. for more information. There is plenty of information online and a great brand called Happy Light.

Exercise— Mild to moderate exercise can boost your mood and get happy hormones flowing. Take a brisk walk, do some pushups, even chair yoga can get your blood flowing to help boost your mood. There are many resources online for exercise classes you can do in your own living room and you can find one that fits your mobility needs.

People— Having a regular visitation with a friend or family member can make all the difference in the world to a gloomy day. Make sure to provide yourself time to socialize with others, laugh, listen to happy music. There are so many opportunities to connect with others. Including MeetUp.com, local Senior Centers, Enrichment classes offered by organizations, and more!

Plants— Plants have a wonderful effect on the body and your surroundings. Try visiting a garden store near you, or try having a plant in your home. Maybe you know someone that has a green thumb, and they can help you pick one out that is perfect for your home!

Working with Winter Weather

Take steps to weatherize your home. This could be putting plastic on your drafty windows, or getting that weather strip for your drafty front door. Remember to ask your utility company for more tips and if you have any maintenance requests, call in a work order! Sometimes you can also ask your utility company to make a payment plan to help lower your bills in the winter months.

Take EXTRA Time— It takes longer to do normal day to day things with inclement weather. Make sure you are taking time to defrost your car windows, walk slower when outside, and to give yourself extra time to get from one place to the next. Leave extra room between you and the vehicles ahead if you drive, and also extra time for the bus to get where it needs to go. Be flexible!

Read your Mail! Homes for Good often sends notices out to residents about actions you need to take to make sure you are following winter protocol according to your lease and directions from property managers. This could mean disconnecting your hoses, keeping sidewalks clutter free etc. If you have any questions contact your PM.

Stay Home— It is better to stay home and avoid accidents in dangerous weather. Spend nicer days stocking up on extra food just incase a storm hits. There are grocery delivery programs in Eugene/Springfield too.

What Is Dolly Parton's Imagination Library?

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is...FREE!

It sounds almost too simple to be true, but by reading regularly with your children during their preschool years, you are giving them the biggest boost toward a successful education they will ever get.

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library will help you read with your child. There are many reasons parents do not read to their child, but we can eliminate one of them. Every child will have books of their very own, at no cost to you, thanks to Eugene Public Library Foundation and Dolly Parton.

Each month a new, carefully selected book will be mailed in your child's name directly to your home. He/she can look forward to new and exciting reading adventures from Dolly Parton's Imagination Library until he/she turns five years old as long as you remain a resident of the City of Eugene. Should the child move outside the City of Eugene, he/she automatically exits the program.

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a FREE GIFT to our children! All you have to do is read to your children.

Who Is Eligible?

Preschool children (birth until their fifth birthday) of the City of Eugene.

What Are My Responsibilities?

1. Be a resident of the City of Eugene.
2. Submit an official registration form, completely filled out by parent or guardian (form must be approved and on file with Eugene Public Library).
3. Notify Eugene Public Library any time your address changes. Books are mailed to the address listed on the official registration form. If the child's address changes, you must contact Eugene Public Library at (541) 682-5450 in order to continue receiving books.
4. Read with your child.

When Will I Receive Books?

Eight to ten weeks after your registration form has been received, books will begin arriving at your home and will continue until your child turns five or you move out of the City of Eugene.

How Can I Help?

Do you know a preschool child in the city of Eugene who is not receiving Dolly Parton's Imagination Library? Give their parents a brochure/registration form and encourage them to fill it out and mail it to the address below. Telling them about this FREE program can make a huge difference in their future and the future of our community. If you know of a business, organization or individual who would like to donate funds to support this gift to your children, donations can be sent to:

Eugene Public Library Foundation
100 West 10th Avenue
Eugene, OR 97401
